By offering a one stop leisure brand featuring a seamless journey across two destinations, One Faber Group offerings remain as a must-do for all tourists. Closer to home, One Faber Group aims to reconnect with the local community with its leisure offerings. Through constantly renewing and refreshing its range of products, One Faber Group strengthens its emotional connection with Singaporeans by creating opportunities for them to recall happy memories and to recreate new ones. On 19 January, One Faber Group proudly unveils a new brand video, a key visual and a brand tagline, One Escapade, Countless Experiences, to capture the brand's value proposition.

"Singapore Cable Car has been a key part of the local tourism landscape for four decades and it currently offers the only cable car dining experience in Asia," said Ms Lim Suat Jien, Managing Director, Mount Faber Leisure Group. "Staying true to our brand tagline 'One Escapade, Countless Experiences', One Faber Group offers a variety of lifestyle options that are constantly renewed and refreshed, so that we stay relevant and continue to appeal to our local and overseas guests," she added.

Since the formation of One Faber Group in April 2017, sales and marketing efforts to reconnect with locals through special attraction discounts, domestic campaigns and partnerships to extend outreach, has yielded a healthy increase in ridership to the Singapore Cable Car and visitorship to its attractions. The Faber Licence annual membership for local residents to enjoy unlimited year-long cable car rides and discounts across Faber Peak and Sentosa is a strong value-added proposition for repeat visitorship.

"Mount Faber Park, Singapore Cable Car and the Sentosa Merlion hold nostalgic memories for many Singaporeans, many of whom remember family visits from their childhood. One Faber Group aims to reconnect with locals and invite them to return, to recapture and relive their happy moments and create new ones with us," said Ms Lim.

ABOUT THE BRAND LOGO

The One Faber Group logo captures the heritage of the group by featuring the elements of a mountain, sea and sun – where its collection of attractions is found. This includes Mount Faber, Wings of Time by the sea, and the iconic Singapore Cable Car in the sky, which has been part of Singapore's leisure experience for four decades.

These elements possess a deeper meaning. Firstly, the graphic mountain of Faber Peak has a detailed shape and multiple shades of green to depict the biodiversity there. Secondly, the waves that sit below it show that the harbour and blue seas are not just part of the view, but an integral and accessible attraction of the brand experience.

Lastly, the sun that overlooks it all is captured in two shades of orange to represent sunrise and sunset. It signifies that there is something for everyone throughout the day. The white highlight resembles a smile to symbolise the happiness and warmth that radiates through the service staff.
